Latin I - In this full year course students will strive to enhance their general language learning techniques, including facility with English, while focusing on the Latin language. Students should expect to learn all the noun declensions and verb tenses in this course and will likely get a better grasp of English grammar in the process. They will develop an awareness of the culture of the Romans, its historic significance, and its contemporary relevance. By May all students will be able to read, listen, and comprehend simple Latin sentences. Students will engage in a variety of learning activities including reading, group and individual class work, oral presentations, quizzes, creative projects, and exams.
