Introduction to Latin. In this course 6th graders gain initial experience with the language of the ancient Romans. Students develop a working knowledge of basic vocabulary with a view to reading simple passages Latin. They read and listen to stories in Latin, discuss these stories and familiar topics, and engage in a variety of class activities. This class also addresses relationships between Latin and modern languages, etymology, and word formation. Through the course, we engage with select aspects of Roman culture and Greco-Roman myth.
