Host an exchange student like

Maria Assunta from Italy

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Maria is a lively and charismatic girl from a small village in southern Italy. She has been to London and Dublin on school and exchange trips and thoroughly enjoys learning about new and different cultures. In her free time Maria loves to play the guitar in a band with her friends, take photographs of nature, play volleyball, and spend time at the beach when it's warm. She is also a member of a scouting group and attends theater school! Maria is a fantastic student who comes highly recommended by her teachers. They state that she is a "smart and dedicated student" whose enthusiasm and passion for learning is unmatched. They add that she is "irreplaceable" in the classroom and driven by a true love for culture. Maria hopes to be a marine biologist or military pilot when she grows up. Maria says that she has loved the U.S. ever since she discovered the Disney channel as a young girl and is excited to see what American life is really like. She is a fascinating, eclectic, curious, and energetic person so her host family is in for non-stop fun and excitement come August!
