Greetings and Happy Summer!

What follows is the summer homework for rising 10th grade students, as well as the 10th grade book list for the 2018-2019 school year. All books should be purchased prior to the beginning of the school year. In an effort to save families money, we are providing you with the ISBN number for each text. This will allow you to shop around a bit on the Internet to find the best price for books. It is important that you purchase the correct edition of each book, and the ISBN ensures that you will receive the correct book with the correct publisher and edition.

If you have questions about Math or Science, please e-mail John Schatz at jschatz@charlemont.org. If you have questions about French, Spanish, Latin, or Humanities, please e-mail Neale Gay at ngay@charlemont.org.

Humanities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Read Mary Shelley's Frankenstein. It's very important that all students read this completely before the first day of school, and that they bring their text. Make certain that you order the text with this ISBN number: 0393927938 - Annotate carefully as you read Shelley's novel. In addition to your regular annotations, each time you encounter a particularly important, provocative, and/or disturbing passage, mark it with a post-it note. When you have completed the novel, look at all the passages you've marked and select at least ten of the most memorable quotations/excerpts. Copy the passages down (word for word) using MLA format (parenthetical citations). - Your quotations should be chosen from different sections of the novel to demonstrate that you've read the entire book closely and to capture different elements of the novel (style, conflict, setting, characterization, etc) - Then, select the one passage or quotation that you think captures the essence – the true meaning – of the novel for you, the reader. In a well-written paragraph or two, explain exactly HOW this passage is representative of the book's themes, conflict, and/or style. Avoid plot summary and instead offer a close reading of the passage in which you articulate its larger significance.
