Latin IV

Latin IV offers an introduction to reading original works in Latin. Student interest determines the curriculum; in recent years, excerpted texts have included both ancient works such as Caesar's Gallic War, Lucretius' De Rerum Natura, and Ovid's Metamorphoses, as well as medieval literature ranging from fables to philosophy. As before, students will be asked to listen, read, write, and speak, with greater emphasis on critical analysis and exploration of underlying themes.
