Full-time Spanish teacher

The Academy at Charlemont, nestled in the foothills of the Berkshire mountains, has been providing an exceptional college-preparatory education to students for over 35 years. Rooted firmly in the classical tradition, and employing a progressive teaching method which honors each child as a learner, partner, and explorer, The Academy is a special place to work.

The ideal candidate would have some experience teaching Spanish at all levels and to middle and high school age children. Other responsibilities for this position include those that are normally part of a school commitment: coaching assignments (as applicable), advising, and other routine duties.

Prior experience teaching Spanish classes and a Master's Degree are preferred. A candidate must also possess the interest and energy to thrive within a lively work pace, a genuine appreciation of adolescents, a sense of humor, and the ability to work as part of a team.
