Latin IV
In this course, students focus on reading original works in Latin. Student interest determines the curriculum; in recent years, excerpted texts have included Vergil’s Aeneid, Caesar’s Gallic War, Ovid’s Metamorphoses, as well as medieval and modern works. As before, students will be asked to listen, read, write, and speak, with greater emphasis on critical analysis and exploration of underlying themes.